

Student Complaint Notice

Los Angeles Pacific University (LAPU) takes very seriously complaints and concerns regarding the institution.

If you have a complaint regarding LAPU, the university has established a grievance process for students ("Grievance Policy") that you may find in the LAPU Catalog. This policy addresses both academic and nonacademic grievances.

If you have a complaint not addressed by one of the grievance processes identified above, or if you have questions regarding the proper process for addressing your complaint, you may contact:

- the Academic Dean at (626) 815-5482, or academicaffairs@lapu.edu
- the Assoc. Vice President of Student Success at (626) 857-2473, or avpstudentsuccess@lapu.edu
- the Office of the General Counsel at (626) 387-5763, or cjennings@apu.edu

These contacts will provide guidance on the campus process for addressing your particular issue.

If you believe that your complaint warrants further attention after you have exhausted all the steps and appeals outlined by the Grievance Policy, you may present your complaint to the WASC Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC) at www.wscuc.org/comments if your complaint is associated with the institution's compliance with academic program quality and accrediting standards. WSCUC is the agency that accredits Los Angeles Pacific University's academic programs.

If you believe that your complaint continues to warrant further consideration after exhausting the review of either WSCUC or administrators at Los Angeles Pacific University, you may contact the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education for review of a complaint. The bureau may be contacted at 2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95833,
