

LOS ANGELES PACIFIC
UNIVERSITY

Bachelor of INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The online Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies (BIS) is a flexible degree completion program designed for students who want a custom-built degree tailored to their own career goals.

BUILD YOUR OWN DEGREE

The Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies degree allows students to custom build a degree that meets their own educational and career goals. Students can select courses from multiple specialties and general electives to help them develop the knowledge, skills, and attitudes needed to prepare them for their chosen career.

Highlights

- Flexible program requirements allow maximum opportunity to transfer previously completed credits
- Choosing from 22 different subject concentrations allows students to develop interdisciplinary skills from multiple fields
- A final capstone project allows students to integrate the concepts from the chosen area(s) of study
- Allows students to pursue graduate studies in a program that does not require a specific undergraduate degree

At A Glance

Program Credits

General Education Core: 34

Two Concentrations: 30

Student chooses two 15-credit concentrations

Capstone Project: 6

Electives: 50

Total Credits to Graduate: 120

Cost Per Credit: $499

COURSEWORK

LAPU's B.A. in Interdisciplinary Studies degree requires the following coursework.

For more information, please visit: lapu.edu/programs/bis-interdisciplinary-studies/program-details

Requirements for the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies

To earn the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies degree, students must complete the degree components listed below:

General Education Core 34 credits

Two Concentrations 30 credits

Capstone Project 6 credits

Electives 50 credits*

Total: 120 credits

*At least 24 elective credits must be upper division (300- or 400-level) courses

In order to earn the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies degree, students must complete two 15-credit concentrations and two 3-credit capstone courses while achieving a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 in the concentration and capstone courses.

General Education Core 34 Credits	View the LAPU Undergraduate Catalog to read more about the courses required in the General Education Core.
Two Concentrations 30 credits	Students may choose any two of the following concentrations (15 credits each). Students will consult a success coach to determine an appropriate pairing of concentrations. (No more than three (3) credits may be in common between the two chosen concentrations). <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Applied Pastoral Counseling</li><li>• Child and Adolescent Psychology</li><li>• Clinical Psychology</li><li>• Criminal Behavior</li><li>• Cultural Psychology</li><li>• Educational Psychology</li><li>• General Psychology</li><li>• Health Education</li><li>• Healthcare Leadership</li><li>• Healthcare Management</li></ul> <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Human Services</li><li>• Industrial/Organizational Psychology</li><li>• Organizational Dynamics</li><li>• Organizational Leadership</li><li>• Psychology in the Healthcare Profession</li><li>• Public Administration</li><li>• Public Health</li><li>• Supply Chain Management</li><li>• Customized Concentration</li></ul>
Capstone Courses 6 credits	ISTU 490	Interdisciplinary Studies Capstone I	3
	ISTU 495	Interdisciplinary Studies Capstone II	3
Electives 50	Students may choose from any course in the LAPU Academic Catalog , provided at least 24 elective credits are upper division (300- or 400-level) courses.

Total 120 credits